Two Hundred and Seventy-One Tickets Were Sold to This City.

The Brick City was well represented in Gainesville yesterday, the largest crowd that ever left that city game, and returned home delighted. game, and returned home delighted.

There were just 271 tickets reported sold from Ocala, a large number of them coming up on the morning train, and as a result the train last night could scarcely accommodate the large crowd returning home.

In all it was a jolly crowd, and we are sorry that they traveled such a long distance to see such a onesided contest, even after they had gone to the trouble and expense of preparing for extra stunts that the Oak Halls might have put on, but fortunately for them the work put up was the worst ever done by an organization calling itself a crack ball
